

BIDS NOW ON SALE FOR SENIOR CLASS VALENTINE DANCE

Going on sale today are the red heart-shaped bids for the senior dance to be held January 10 from 9 to 1 o'clock in the Women's gym. They may be purchased from any senior class council member.

Larger hearts of the same pattern are being made to serve as poster advertisements. Mary McCluen, Laura Lee Zwissig, and Frances Wulff, chairman and co-chairmen of the affair, choose to keep the entertainment that is being lined up secret but they promise something "out of this world."

CONTEST

The dancing contest will be the highlight of the evening and a well worth while event to winners, states Rae Klason, publicity chairman. Judges for the contest and the prizes will be kept secret until the night of the dance.

Dancing in the contest will be restricted to waltzing and jitterbugging. Admission to the dance is all that is required for entrance in the contest.

Music for the affair will be off the record. Committee heads are Emma Ann Wishart, in charge of entertainment; Rae Klason, publicity; Grace Villaseñor, bids and finance; Audrey Levick, decorations; Vivian Dehay, posters.

TICKET SELLERS

Members of the senior council who will sell tickets are Grace Villaseñor, Bob Coombs, Barbara Lee Rico, Vivian Dehay, Audrey Levick, Dorothy Pellini, Betty James, Gloria Sues.

Yvonne Taylor, Esther Stormont, Roberta Fletcher, Frances Wulff, Laura Lee Zwissig, Mary McCluen, Jeanne Fischer, Glenna Anderson, Letha Roberts, Jeanne Arrants, Ruth Faulkner, and Claire Emigh.

San Jose State Basketball Team Meets San Francisco State Squad Tonight In Kezar Pavilion At 8 O'clock

Well, tonight's the night. Coach Bill Hubbard's Spartan hoopsters invade the San Francisco State Kezar Pavilion in an attempt to defeat the "Staters" in the first of a two-game series.

The 4:25 Southern Pacific train out of San Jose will carry many of the enthusiastic Spartan supporters to San Francisco. The Rally committee is planning lots of action and spirit on the way to San Francisco as well as during the game itself.

Not too much is known about the S.F.S. team; however, in past encounters, Patrick, Unway, and Diggins have been the scoring threats. A few weeks back they were defeated by their cross-town rivals, San Francisco Junior college, by a close margin.

We look for Don McCaslin and Ernie Cartwright to carry the offensive burden for Sparta. Cartwright looked impressive in Tuesday night's game when he tallied 13 points to take high point honors for S.J.S.

Jack Marclpan, Charlie Laser, and Bill McFarlane will round out the starting five for the Spartans. Tonight may be Don McCaslin's last appearance with the team, for he is subject to military call in the very near future. However, he is scheduled to play against the Globe Trotters on Saturday night at the Civic auditorium, a game that will be well worth seeing.

Students who plan to make the trip will wear white blouses or sweaters for the rooting section to be organized at the game.

A.S.B. Petitions Due Friday; Nominations To Be Next Week

Applicants for the posts of two Student Court junior justices and two freshman ASB council representatives will present their qualifications for the respective offices at Wednesday's nomination assembly to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 12:30 o'clock. Petitions for the offices must be signed and turned in by 4 o'clock Friday. Application blanks can be obtained from the Business Office.

VETS INITIATE FORMER WAVE

Lois Ellithorpe, former WAVE storekeeper, was officially initiated as a charter member of the on-campus veterans' organization at their Tuesday night meeting.

Miss Ellithorpe is the first woman member of the group.

The year's activities, which will include a men's fashion show sometime in the near future, were topics of discussion.

All veterans on campus are invited to attend the regular Tuesday night meetings at 7 o'clock in the Varsity House.

Those planning to run for Junior Court justices must be junior class members at the time of the election, members of the student body in good standing, and regular students. The requirements apply to freshman candidates for ASB council representatives except that they must have first-year standing.

Marge Howell, student body vice president, urges freshmen to come to the nomination assembly and start their college careers right by becoming acquainted with student affairs and personalities. Juniors, seniors, and sophomores are also expected to attend.

Council representatives serve on the main governing body of the college as representatives of their classes. Therefore, the position of representative links class government with that of the entire college. Justices on the Student Court see that the constitution is revised when action calls for it, and prosecutes offenders of it.

Class elections will be held February 9, and nominations will be made in the regular preceding weekly meetings. For the sophomores and juniors the meetings will be held next Tuesday while the seniors will nominate at their orientation meeting Thursday, February 8. Qualifications for class offices are the same as those for student body positions.

'OF MICE...NO MEN' NEEDS MICE, MEN; IF EITHER, APPLY!

By GLORIA TERESI

The manhunt is on! Intrepid scouts from the Revelries cast are searching everywhere from the light-well in the Science building to the dome of the Student Union for the male of the species.

The cause of this frantic search? In words of one syllable, the DRAFT. Sherman Thomas, cast as the lead in the aptly-titled Revelries skit, "Of Mice — No Men," has gone the way of all men — into the service.

Now, a suitable male student to replace him in the skit is being sought by Revelries officials. "If you are five feet ten inches tall or over, smooth, suave, sophisticated, and/or a man, apply at once!" pleads Marian Jacobson, director of the production.

If coaxing or threatening do not bring results, Miss Jacobson holds as her trump card, bribery. "The fellow who plays the lead in the skit has the pleasurable task of soundly kissing several extremely attractive girls. In fact, we might even go so far as to increase the number of rehearsals," she promised solemnly, placing her right hand on the Revelries skit, and her left on the barrel of a twenty-two.

Men students eager to volunteer for this noble cause can make the sacrifice by contacting Marian Jacobson, or by leaving a note in the "R" box in the Co-op or in the Speech office.

Dinner Cancelled

The college USO dinner scheduled for tonight has been cancelled, according to Mary Alyce Whiting, chairman of the affair.

The USO dance in the Student Union will be held as usual.

Committees Report On Jinx Progress At Weekly AWA Meet

Committee reports on preparations for the AWA "Cherry Tree Spree" scheduled for February 21 in the Women's gym highlighted the meeting of the women's group yesterday afternoon.

Stating that refreshments for the winter quarter jinx party will be a surprise but good, Co-chairmen Bobbie Jo Fields and Dot McCullough declared that refreshments will remain a secret until the night of the party.

Entertainment will be provided by an entirely new campus talent group, according to Frances Boden and Bonnie McWilliams, co-chairmen for the amusement portion of the George Washington party.

With decorations to follow a patriotic theme of red, white, and blue, Co-chairmen Nancy Duncan and Joanne McInnes told AWA members that George Washington atmosphere will be well represented.

Co-eds will wear original costumes in keeping with the "Cherry Tree Spree" theme. Games will be played under the direction of Georgene Bihlman, while ticket sales will be supervised by Marge Hopper and Betty Goode. Publicity for the all-women affair is being handled by Vickie Yglesias and Mary Davis.

SOPHS WILL HOLD SKATING PARTY AT 8:15 TOMORROW

Fun for everyone will be the objective of the sophomore class at the skating party and dance tomorrow night at the Ice Bowl and the Student Center.

Both the skating and dancing will be open to all State students. Members of other classes are cordially invited by the sophs to "come to the aid of the party."

Festivities will begin at the Ice Bowl at 8:15. The rink will be closed to the public from then until 10:00.

There will be an admission charge of 50 cents at the rink, and a skate rental fee of 75 cents, but those who bring their own skates need not pay the latter.

Dancing will begin at the Student Center of the First Congregational Church, Third and San Antonio streets, at 10 p.m. There will be no admission charge; refreshments will consist of cokes at the dance.

Ballet Expert Discusses Trends Of The Dance In America

By MARGARET MOORE

Speaking in behalf of the Russian Ballet, which will present a program next Monday evening, February 4, at the Civic auditorium, Irving Deakin, author, lecturer, and member of the company gave an "informal chat" on the subject of the dance and the trends it has taken in the American theater. Deakin's talk took place in the Little Theater yesterday at 3:00 o'clock.

Determined not to treat the subject "historically or profoundly," Deakin expressed danger in "over-glamorizing" any of the arts. From the beginning of society, the dance has been the chief form of self-expression, over all other forms of art, he explained.

To illustrate the importance of dance in the entertainment world today, Mr. Deakin mentioned the ballet as it figures in the productions of "Oklahoma" and "Bloomer Girl," well-known Broadway successes. With the choreography for these productions as developed by Agnes DeMille as an example, he pointed out that the "theater dance" of today is not a true ballet in that more free forms of dance are included, among these, modern dance.

"Fancy Free," one of the latest ballets and new to the audiences of San Jose, was described by Mr. Deakin, who drew attention to the fact that in this performance by a Russian ballet company there is no "toe" technique used, and the free forms are prominently featured.

Developed by three young men, "Fancy Free" is a story in dance of three sailors on shore leave. The scene is set on a street corner and in a "little beer saloon with a juke box." Only six dancers are needed to tell the story but the full cast includes from 50 to 75 artists.

Leonard Bernstein wrote the music and the choreography and simple story were originated by Jerome Robbins. Oliver Smith devised the set used in the production. In keeping with the timeliness of the theme, the music begins with an elaboration upon the familiar boogie beat.

Mr. Deakin feels that it is a healthy sign for a nation to look to the safety and preservation of its culture and the artists who express it. Citing Russia and England, he described how the Russian artists are given priority for transportation over foreign news correspondents and noted that dancers in England are returned to their companies after induction into the service.

Despite the American man's "aversion to dance as being sissy," Deakin feels that since dance is becoming an important part of education in the schools and more men are entering the field, there is reason to admit that "dance is a very potent force in America today."

College Asilomar Conference Off

Asilomar, annual conference for college young people, scheduled for February 24 to 30, has been indefinitely postponed.

The cancellation, explained Bob James, executive secretary of the SCA, was in line with an ODT order prohibiting conferences attended by over 50 people.

To provide for the educational values Asilomar would have met, at least two "little Asilomars" are being planned, one by College of Pacific and one by San Jose State, both to run February 24 to 28.
